

May: WEEK FOUR

SAFETY

THE AGENDA:

*Possible Discussion Topics:
(choose by age-appropriateness)*

- Safety on the jobsite—who is responsible? What are potential dangers at the workplace?
- Road Safety—how can we be responsible pedestrians, drivers, bikers, skateboarders, etc.?
- Stranger Safety—at the park, home alone, answering the phone, walking home, etc.
- Internet Safety—staying safe online.

◇ Safety Crossword

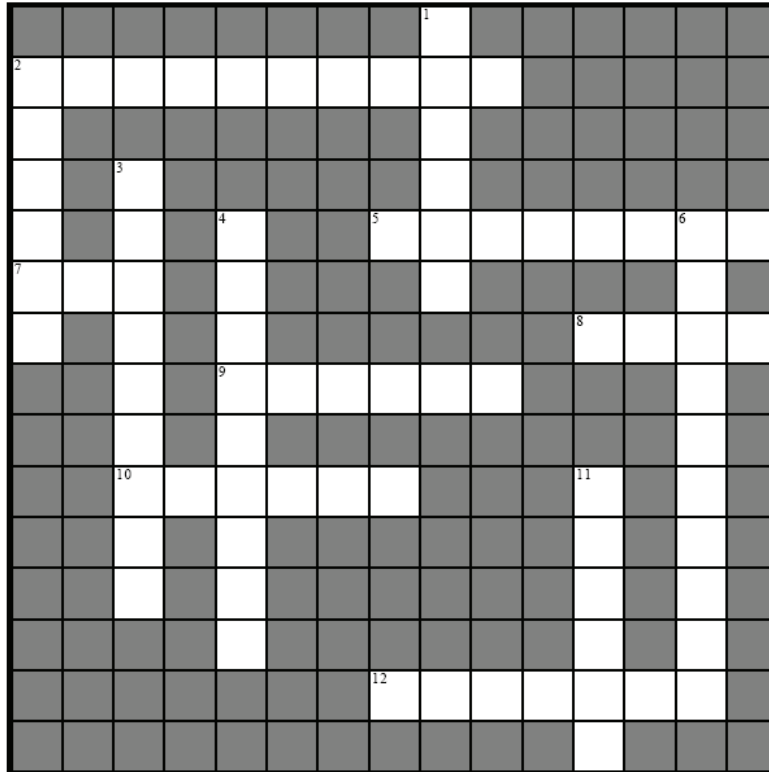

◇ Choose a book from the school library you enjoy and design a new cover for it that better reflects the story.

Name _____ Date _____

Safety

Directions: Complete the crossword by filling in a word that fits each clue.

Copyright © Houghton Mifflin Company. All rights reserved.

Across

- eye protection from the sun
- safety item to keep car passenger in place
- number of times to look before crossing a street
- It is better to be _____ than sorry.
- name of animal that promotes fire safety
- inflatable item to protect car passengers from injury
- to keep from harm or injury

Down

- protection gear for the head
- freedom from danger
- a path for pedestrians to safely cross a street
- sun protection for the skin
- always wear one in a boat
- Before you cross the street, stop, look, and _____.